

20th Annual

Human Rights Expressions Contest

Write an Essay • Poem • Rap/Spoken Word • Song

This Year's Theme:
"Re-defining Real Equality of Education"

Review articles #1, #2, #7, #11, #19, #20 & #26 from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Then think about these guiding questions:

How does the school-to-prison pipeline limit access to education for students of color? How can we close the racial and income disparity in our school systems? How does your educational experience compare to the experiences of other young people around the world? What can we do when one's choice of schools negatively impacts other students' human right to education?

Open to All St. Louis Area Middle and High School Students
