

St. Louis Coalition for Human Rights in partnership with the Missouri History Museum presents its 22nd annual Human Rights Youth Expressions Contest

What are the Barriers to Healthy Food as a Human Right?

Open to All Metro Area Youth of Middle and High School Ages.

Create & Submit your Original Essay, Poem, Song or Spoken Word by October 31, 2018.

Review articles #2, #7, #17 #25 & #27 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

Then think about these guiding questions:

Do you know what ingredients are in your food?

Why are some neighborhoods food deserts?

What impact does privatization have on food production?

What is the impact of healthy foods on learning and the development of children and youth?

How does nutrition affect good health?

Cash Prizes!

Middle School:

▪ 1st Prize $100

▪ 2nd Prize $50

▪ 3rd Prize $25

High School:

▪ 1st Prize $150

▪ 2nd Prize $100

▪ 3rd Prize $50

The winning expressions will be recognized at the Annual Human Rights Celebration on Monday, December 10, 2018 at the Missouri History Museum.

Your Human Rights Expression must be no more than 500 words, preferably typed. (E)Mail your entry to the St. Louis Coalition for Human Rights, P.O. Box 5277, St. Louis, MO 63115 or to stlc4hr@yahoo.com. Include a cover page with your full name, address, phone number, grade and school (if applicable).

